

Sunday 5th October's meeting challenged our thinking a bit.

First off was Keith opening with Psalm 27 telling how David poured out his heart to God with songs, despite going through difficult times.

Keith also quoted Spurgeon - Wait at His door with prayer; wait at His foot with humility; wait at His table with service; wait at His window with expectancy

Sometimes we have to wait for answer to our prayer but it will come.

Doug then asked the question - are we hole hearted or are we whole hearted. Definitely something to ponder. Being hole hearted means there is something missing - a gap in our lives which can lead to feeling downcast, despair or less than satisfied. Do you feel that?

What can fill that void? What can make you whole hearted?

Jesus can. Psalm 40 v 2&3 says

2 He lifted me out of the slimy pit,
out of the mud and mire;

he set my feet on a rock
and gave me a firm place to stand.

3 He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.

Many will see and fear the Lord
and put their trust in him.

So are we hole hearted or wholehearted?

We won't be holding our normal service this Sunday as we shall be joining with the folk from Thorney Abbey at 11 am at Park Farm - Thorney, to celebrate the Harvest. You will be most welcome to come along. This will be followed by a sharing lunch.
